Speaker Profile

Ms. Luoya Tu came to the U.S. to pursue her architecture career, with her architecture dream and intense professional experiences from China. After graduating with a Master Degree of Architecture in 2008 from UCLA, the cutting edge design methodologies continue to play an important role in her practice. Her work is enriched with multiple artistic and social dimensions of architecture and creative form-making skills. Prior to founding Archimorphic, she served as Partner and Design Director at amphibianArc in Los Angeles, and Project Manager at CCDI Beijing. Working in both China and the U.S., Luoya has years of professional experience in the design and management of award-winning complex commercial, residential, mixed-use, and public projects.
